

Writing a paragraph

- English writing moves from the idea, to the word, to the meaning full sentences.
- A group of sentences, logically combined with each other, forms a unit called a paragraph.
- Paragraph makes up a composition, an essay, a research paper, a chapter, or even a book.

Writing is the fourth of the four language skills, which are:

Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing

In our own language, writing is usually the fourth language skill that we learn.

To write clearly it is essential to understand the basic system of a language. In English this includes knowledge of grammar, punctuation and sentence structure. Vocabulary is also necessary, as is correct spelling and formatting.

Taking notes for study purposes is an example of writing for one's self. Blogging publicly is an example of writing for an unknown audience. A letter to a friend is an example of writing for a targeted audience. As with speaking, it is important to consider your audience when writing. There are many different styles of writing, from informal to formal.
